

Gabrielle Marshall, HR Employment Consultant, has been employed with the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in Human Resources since 2019. Before accepting a role in HR in Higher Education, Gabrielle transitioned into Higher Education from 8 years of Retail bringing knowledge of Human Resource and leadership development to Higher ED. Gabrielle has presented multiple topics to UTHSC campus about resumes, professional development, and interview skills. Gabrielle is very passionate about helping others with professional growth through continuous learning, development, and awareness of skills