

Elizabeth Bishop, EdD, has over 20 years' experience in leadership development working in higher education and healthcare organizations. She holds two degrees in Social Work and a Doctorate in Adult Education. A certified DiSC facilitator she is experienced in communication strategies, team development and engagement strategies; to serve as a pivotal resource for how to give and receive helpful feedback, lead others through change and how to develop and grow people. Dr. Bishop is also a certified ROI evaluation professional through the ROI Institute and has developed devaluation strategies to collect feedback on both reaction, learning and impact of leadership and developmental programs for large institutions. Dr. Bishop enjoys facilitating and enabling leaders to develop the mindsets and skillsets to be influential and dynamic leaders of people.

Administrative Track Session 2, Thursday June 13th, Crescent